Our cancer cover

According to Cancer Research UK, a person in the UK is diagnosed with cancer every two minutes and, between 2015 - 2017, the latest years for which cancer incidence data is available, there was an average of 367,167 new cases of cancer diagnosed in the UK each year – that's around 1,000 cases every day*.

We understand how difficult it can be for anyone living with the realities of being diagnosed with any form of cancer so our experienced team will work alongside your client's oncologist to help make the claims process as easy as possible.

Freedom Elite includes, as standard, full cancer cover including cover for palliative treatment and we do not apply the 'chronic conditions' exclusion to claims relating to the treatment of cancer. Our leaflet, Cancer Cover Explained, gives more detail about the cover we provide for cancer treatment and a copy is available on request.

Our cancer cover – in summary

Our approach is to pay for specialist consultations, diagnostic tests and active cancer treatment such as surgery, radiotherapy and chemotherapy. We will also pay for ongoing follow up monitoring by a specialist for as long as the policy is in force once the active cancer treatment is complete.

What we will pay for

Our cancer cover is designed to meet the cost of active cancer treatment intended to affect the growth of the cancer by shrinking it, stabilising it or slowing the spread of the disease. This means we will cover:

- the initial investigation, diagnosis and subsequent monitoring;
- surgical treatment, chemotherapy treatment and radiotherapy treatment;
- genetic testing to see whether chemotherapy treatment will be beneficial;
- targeted therapies, hormonal therapies and bisphosphonates;
- treatment for the side effects of chemotherapy and radiotherapy;
- reconstructive surgery;
- bone marrow and stem cell transplant; and
- follow-up monitoring for as long as the patient has a policy with us.

We will also provide cover for active cancer treatment for both primary cancer (where the cancer first started) and advanced cancer where it has come back or spread to another part of the body.

If active cancer treatment is no longer effective, the specialist may recommend palliative care to help control the symptoms of cancer and relieve pain or other symptoms. We will also cover the cost of palliative care given solely to relieve pain and other symptoms of end-stage or terminal cancer.

What we will not pay for

There are some treatments we do not cover, including:

- experimental or unproven treatments;
- unlicensed drugs or drugs being used outside the terms of their licence;
- preventative treatments; or
- take home drugs and medications.

Making a claim

When an insured person needs to make a claim, they will find our process simple and efficient. We aim to answer any questions they may have about their claim in a caring and understandable way.

The Freedom Elite claims process

Visit a General Practitioner (GP)

If an insured person feels unwell or suffers from any injury, they must first see their GP for advice. If the GP wants to refer the insured person to a specialist for treatment, the GP will write a referral letter to the specialist detailing the reason for the referral.

Call the claims helpline

If the insured person is referred for private treatment, they must then call our claims helpline to find out if the claim will be covered by their policy and, if so, any limits that apply. If we accept the claim, we will give them a claim number and let them know what to do next.

Keeping in touch

The insured person must keep in touch with us as treatment progresses, particularly if daypatient or inpatient treatment is needed as specific limits may apply. If they do not let us know about future treatment in advance, it may not be covered by us.

Submitting claims

We prefer to settle invoices directly with the providers, but if an insured person does settle any invoices themselves, they can send them to us. This includes claims for NHS cash benefit and maternity cash benefit.

Full details about the Freedom Elite claims process will be provided in the policy documents at the start of the policy.
